Fitness Court Gets Village Funds, Grant

The Antioch Village Board approved to pay $2,010 to make up the difference of a grant that the park department received for a fitness court in Williams Park.

Wells Fargo Gamefield, a national fitness campaign, approved the grant, which is being given to the park department through St. Therese Hospital.

The grant covers 85 percent, or $8,000, of the nearly $8,000 fitness course. The village's cost is 15 percent.

Glenda Tomaschlik, director of parks and recreation, said the fitness court will be a 35 square-foot section covered with wood chips. It will include items such as sit up and pull up bars that will make the court like an "out-door workout room," she said.

The agency asked that the court be built four to six weeks after the village approves funds, Tomaschlik said, but construction this late in the year will depend on the weather.

Tomaschlik, who had applied for three park grants in August, said she feels fortunate to have received one grant. Out of the many applications received, she said, only 10 grants were given.

She said the other grant applications may be approved in 1986. The applications seek grants for a jogging course to be built at Williams Park and a senior citizen fitness walking course, which would possibly be built near the Saw Mill.

"It's one down and two to go next year," Tomaschlik said.

In other news, the village board approved: —The Annual Christmas Parade to be on Saturday, Nov. 30 at 10:30 a.m.

—Halloween Trick or Treat hours be from 4 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 31.

—The sale of cookbooks by Winchester House to benefit its residents to be held on Saturday, Oct. 12 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

—A one-day beer and wine license be issued to St. Ignatius Church, 983 Main St., for its turkey dinner and waive the $75 fee.

The last brush pickup of the year will be on Monday, Oct. 14, the village announced.

Antioch Burglar Faces Seven Years In Prison

Jeffrey Kuechle, 23, of 40710 N. Grand Ave., Antioch, was sentenced to seven years in prison Oct. 3 after violating a probation he had received in 1981 for burglarizing homes in Antioch.

Assistant Public Defender Gordon Dougherty, however, had scheduled Oct. 8 to ask that Kuechle's sentence be reduced to intensive probation. Assistant State's Attorney Marian McElroy asked that Kuechle be sentenced to six months in Lake County Jail and enter a drug rehabilitation program, Dougherty said.

"He (Kuechle) is drug-free and alcohol-free now," Dougherty said. "All the trouble he's been in is when he was 18 and 19 years old."

Kuechle had his first run-in with the law in early 1980 after he burglarized two Antioch homes. In December, he received his first sentence of three years probation and 30 days in the Lake County Jail.

The following May, Kuechle's probation was revoked after he pleaded guilty to a third burglary and he was resentence to four years probation and three and one-half months in jail with the balance of his probation time to be served in a halfway house in Waukegan.

A month later, Kuechle fled the Halfway House after a 10-day stay and went to Minnesota where he committed a robbery and served a 30-month prison sentence.

Upon Kuechle's departure from Halfway House, a warrant was issued by the Lake County Sheriff's Department. He was picked up on that warrant on Aug. 27, 1985 and admitted he left the halfway house on Sept. 3.

Man Faces Trial For Slaying Of Roommate

A Dec. 16 trial date has been set for Catarino Munoz for the July 1984 stabbing death of his roommate at 277 Rte. 173, Antioch. Munoz, 26, was arrested by Antioch police and charged with murder and armed violence after the July 10, 1984 stabbing of Roberto Ravirez in a rented room of the Sunset Motel.

The trial date came after Munoz was found fit to stand trial after spending a year in a state hospital, said Antioch Police Lt. Thomas Fisher. Munoz is now in the Lake

Scouts To Serve 25th Annual Dinner

Mark your calendars now and plan to join with the members of Antioch's Boy Scout Troop 92 as they host the 25th Annual "All You Can Eat" Spaghetti Dinner on Sunday, Oct. 20. The dinner will be held at the Antioch Moose Lodge 525, 884 Main St., Antioch. Dinner, including "all you can eat" spaghetti and meatballs, bread and butter, coleslaw, dessert and beverage, will be served by Troop 92 Scouts between the hours of noon and 7 p.m., with best seating between 1 and 5 p.m. Donation is $3 per person, with children under 6 years of age eating free. Tickets can be purchased in advance from any Troop 92 Scout, and they will also be available at the door. Dinners will also be available on a "carry-out" basis; individuals are asked to bring their own take-home containers.

Several mini-raffles will be held throughout the afternoon and early evening, and a number of special prizes will be given away. Prizes for the raffle have been donated to the troop by area merchants.

This troop tradition has become a primary means of financing many of the Scout's activities, including campouts and field trips. The overall chairman of this year's dinner, Harold Clark, invites all to join in the festivities of this year's 25th "Silver Anniversary" of this annual event. Troop 92 Scoutmaster Bernie Dost, in his 25th year of service at the dinner, will be assisting chief chef Dick Stroner, who has been heading up the kitchen crew for a phenomenal 23 years. Also heading up various committees for this year's dinner are: Harold Clark, food; Bill Boetzelman and Dick Weston, house managers; Ken Wisniewski, tickets; Jay Bruski, raffle; and Paul Hettich, publicity.

For further information contact Paul Hettich at (312) 395-6642 or Debbie Thelen at (312) 395-5379

"If we can help just one youth as a result of this effort, it will make it all worthwhile," Bucar said.

Child abuse prevention is the main focus of exchange clubs throughout the United States. This is the first major program the Antioch club has set since its charter in January.

Fisher said the stabbing came after a fight between the roommates allegedly over a disagreement about a late night T.V. talk program.

Fisher said Munoz is of Mexican decent and is an illegal alien of that country. Ramirez was also illegally in the United States from Mexico, he said.

Combating Youth Suicide Is Objective Of Seminar

Everyone 12 years of age and older, and especially parents of young children and teenagers, is invited to attend the Youth Suicide Seminar to be held at 2 p.m. on Oct. 19, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 25100 W. Grand Ave. (junction on Rtes. 132 and 59) in Lake Villa. Admission is free.

This Christ-oriented seminar is designed and offered to help eliminate youth suicide, which is the number two killer of today's teenagers, second only to the improper operation of automobiles. "Through awareness and education, parents, teachers, friends and acquaintances can help to prevent suicide and help save the lives of not only our young people, but people of all ages," said Pastor John W. Zellmer. "These tragic losses and the sadness they cause are a modern-day scourge — a devil's tool — but by learning about the danger signals and what to do about them, all of us can become more aware that something very, very serious may be contemplated," said the pastor.

The seminar, conducted by Dr. D.H. Hagin, of the Conley-Hagin Center, Elburn, Ill., will cover these important subjects: the relation between depression and suicide; the underlying causes of self-destructive behavior; how to separate the myths about suicide from the facts; the six levels of suicidation among youth; the warning signs and clues of suicide behavior; and how to handle the suicidal crisis.

At Parkway, Good Food Is Still In The Family

by GLORIA DAVIS

If longevity in business is any evidence of pleasing customers, then the Parkway Restaurant on Belvidere Rd. in Waukegan, has been doing that for three generations.

Opening 40 years ago, The Parkway, is still owned and operated by the Paulson family. The well-known eating place has three wall and heavy beams and high-backed chairs.

The restaurant, features fresh seafood (whitefish, salmon and walleyed pike) and steaks better than any in the county because of "trimming our own meat."

Another outstanding culinary offering in the age of "plastic bakery goods" are the freshly homebaked pies and cakes made each day by Grandmother Paulson (who may be nearing 80 but keeps her age a secret).

Her red devil's cake and lemon meringue pie are famous and in countywide demand.

With seating for 220 people, and banquet facilities for up to 90 people, the popular restaurant is open seven days a week to serve reasonably priced lunches and dinners, dinner entrees running from $8 to $13.

Symphony Fetes Guest Conductors

Young conductors and young soloists will add new dimension and interest to the Lake Forest Symphony's 1985-86 concert season.

Victor Aitay, commencing his 19th season with the successful suburban orchestra, has integrated new concepts into the upcoming season.

Supporting the association's policy of offering performance opportunities to young musicians, he will share the podium with three young musicians, and feature three of the country's most outstanding young virtuosi.

Michael Krajewski, assistant conductor of the Detroit Symphony and music director of the Detroit Symphony Civic Orchestra, will be guest conductor on Nov. 8.

Paul Anthony McRae, recently appointed conductor-in-residence of the Philharmonic Orchestra of Florida, earned the prestigious diploma in conducting from the Academia Musicale Chigiana in Siena, Italy. He will lead the orchestra on Friday, March 7.

Joseph Giunta, music director of the Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony Orchestra, was given a special award by the American Symphony Orchestra for outstanding artistic service to a community. On April 14, he will conduct soloists from the Lyric Opera Center in Pops-at-the-Opera, a first for the Lake Forest Symphony.

The Nov. 8 concert features Steven Honigberg, cellist. Honigberg is one of the youngest members of the prestigious National Symphony in Washington, D.C.

Corey Cervosek, 13-year-old violin prodigy, will solo the two February performances and will be joined by his mentor, Josef Gingold, distinguished professor at Indiana University.

Concert pianist Stephanie Brown, age 25, has already established her career as a concerto performer, having appeared with the New York Philharmonic, and at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. She performs with the symphony on March 7.

Aitay continues to follow the Lake Forest Symphony's tradition of offering international soloists.

Concert pianist Eugene Istomin will open the symphony's season with two performances, Oct. 4 and 6. He has performed throughout the world during his illustrious 30-year career.

Grammy-award-winning clarinetist Richard Stoltzman has performed with many international orchestras, including the London Symphony, Cleveland Orchestra and Los Angeles Philharmonic. He will close the season under music director Aitay's baton.

Bell Customers To Pay 40 Cents More A Month

Illinois Bell multi-line business customers will pay 40 cents more a month for each service line connecting them to the company's switching centers, effective immediately.

The new $3.85 monthly rate, still among the lowest in the country, includes a one-time adjustment approved by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The revised rate is based on new studies of the company's revenues and expenses since its divestiture from AT&T.

Illinois Bell plans to ask the Illinois Commerce Commission to reduce Centrex rates to make the current line charge adjustment comparable to the increase for PBX (Private Branch Exchange) business users. The FCC also approved a 25 percent decrease in rates paid by long distance companies for their connections to Illinois Bell switching centers.

Pet Of The Week

These kerchiefed bandits are Cliff and Kristi Hoerer's best friends. Spike (left) is an American Staffordshire Terrier who was abused and abandoned. He found his way to the doorstep of the Hoerers' home in McHenry, where he was welcomed in to be Kelsey's (center) companion. Kelsey is an English Bull Terrier. Most passersby think Spike and Kelsey are ugly. At first, the Hoerers thought the dogs were ugly too, but have since changed their minds. They think their canine buddies are great! See Hospital CON Change

A significant change in the attitude of members of the Kane-Lake-McHenry Health Services Agency toward plans for Chicago Medical School Hospital may have taken place.

A vote against accepting the recommendation of the project review subcommittee to disallow the teaching facility proposed for Lake County is being viewed by supporters as a breakthrough.

The vote came at a meeting of the agency, a watchdog and accrediting body for health care, Oct. 3 at Cary in McHenry County.

The agency voted 10-8 not to accept the project review committee's recommendation to disallow Chicago Medical School Hospital. The subcommittee vote was 7-0 to disallow.

Robert Byrne of North Chicago, a member of the agency and chairman of the citizens group promoting the proposed hospital, was elated at the outcome.

Byrne stated that a new awareness and appreciation of the role and function of a tertiary care/teaching hospital appears to have developed.

Among the members voting not to accept the subcommittee report, which had the effect of furthering the inquiry into the need and benefits of the proposed hospital, was newly appointed Stanley Pekol of Waukegan, a member of the Lake County Board.

Testimony was presented drawing sharp differences between community hospitals which presently serve Lake County, and the proposed teaching facility.

The meeting technically was recessed in preparation for a final vote in the near future on the agency's position of the proposed hospital's certificate of need application (Con).

Discussion of possibilities for building a new grade school building was the main business of an Antioch Grade School board meeting.

Did everyone have a good time at the Rotary Club Pork Chop Bar-B-Q dinner? I don't know how anyone could have helped but have a good time. The meal was great and the auction is always so much fun. I wish I could have had all of those trips and dinners! The program was entertainment itself...I understand Dennis Johnson & Jack Slegmeier are the creativity behind all of the cute descriptions listing all of the items! Can you imagine some of the things they didn't publish that I am sure they came up with. Job well done guys!

Additional birthdays that were celebrated are Nancy Heinbrodt & Jack Fields, on Oct. 4. And...Thirty two years ago October third was a big day for Donna Anderson and Joan Toft. They were in the same hospital delivering little Al and little Debbie. My time does go by fast huh gals!

September 23 was Mayor Toft and wife Joans 35th Wedding Anniversary. Congratulations to you both and a Happy Birthday to Angela Anderson on her first Birthday! I hear Grandma Anderson had a real big bash for her with lots of food, fun and people! (even a few horses!) She isn't called a swingin' Gramma for nothin'! I was glad to see the Rotary Bar-B-Q go as smoothly as it did. Word is the Rotarians had a big fish boil on Wednesday evening at Deer Lake and they and their guests had a REEAALL Good Time! The guys say Tom Steiskal's fish boil is the best they have ever had-even in Door County for the ones that get there! They said Laddie Korecek had it all organized and everything went smooth-they even sand around the camp fire??! (Ladies do you really believe that!) FIRE PREVENTION WEEK begins October 7 through October 12. This is a time to be sure your smoke alarms are working and if you do not have one, be sure to get out and purchase one. Your kids are going to hear all about Fire Prevention in their Schools so they can fill you in on the importance!

October 6 for 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. there was an Open House & Dedication Ceremonies for Millview Manor and Orchard Manor. Millview was at 2 p.m. and Orchard was at 3 p.m. and everyone was invited to see the projects complete. I think the work for this week is ROTARIANS - God Bless them!

Sexton Co. Proposes Lake County Landfill

by DEBBIE HORVE

As a partial solution to the disposal problem in Lake County, a proposal for a new landfill in Newport Twp. has been presented by Arthur Daniels, president of John B. Sexton Sand and Gravel Co.

The proposal calls for 380 acres in Newport Twp. to be used for development as well as a new landfill. According to Daniels, 100 acres would be used for disposal while the other 280 acres would be used for a development mixed together with open spaces, according to Daniels.

The land planners at Sexton see office and research buildings on the east side of the property, multiple family dwellings to the south and single family homes on the southwest side of the property," Daniels said.

The property in question borders Hunt Club Rd. to the west, Edwards Rd. to the south, Old Rte. 41 to the east and nearly to State Line Rd. to the north.

"One hundred percent of those who attended the meeting were against any more landfills in Newport Twp.," commented Ruby Holmquist of the Newport Environmental Action Team (NEAT).

At the present time there are already three landfills in Newport Twp. with seven landfills in a 12 mile vicinity, Holmquist commented.

Neat is currently working with a Chicago based lawyer to fight the landfill proposal. "We are planning to go into action when we hear Sexton is will file for a permit," Holmquist said.

Currently, Sexton is looking at several sites including some in Cook County. "even if we started working to file for a permit today, it would take at least six months to get the permit," Daniels said. "We do not know when we would begin to work to file for a permit anywhere," he added.

"We think Newport Twp. has enough landfills," said Newport Twp. Supervisor Robert Neal. "We are willing to pay the extra money for a resource recovery facility if needed but I don't see the need for either at present time."

Smoke Means Fire At County College

Amid the smoking-no smoking controversy that abounds at the College of Lake County (CLC), Lakeland Newspapers has a report that CLC Pres. John Hunter, who is a pipe smoker, has added fuel to the non-smokers' fire by accidentally starting a fire in his office on Sept. 30.

Chief of CLC's Security Wayne Hakala confirmed the story about the fire, saying that he was not sure but had heard that the fire was started by ashes from Hunter's pipe. He said that a wastebasket burned, part of the desk was charred and a spot on the rug was burned, estimating the damage at $2,700.

Hunter said that the incident occurred on Oct. 1 when he was working late, saying that he emptied the ashtray (which must have had hot embers in it) into the wastebasket as he was leaving, expecting the custodian to empty it.

The fire not only set the wastebasket on fire but his desk was also burning when a custodian found and extinguished the fire.

The worry is that the fire may have been capable of destroying the entire wing that houses the president's office if it had not been found in time.

Hunter refuted the damage estimate saying that only a side panel of his desk was charred and the desk would be refinished at CLC and used again. He also corrected reports that he had ordered a $2,000 desk and $200 in replacement.

Hunter said he had ordered a desk costing $900 to replace the burned one and the cost of the new wastebasket is nebulous.

Reception Honors Sister Maryann

A civic reception in honor of Sister Maryann, S.Sp.S., outgoing president and chief executive officer of St. Therese Hospital, will be held Sunday, Oct. 13, at St. Dismas Church, Waukegan, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Sister Maryann recently announced her decision to retire after nearly 32 years of service to St. Therese Hospital and the community. She began her career as chief accountant in 1954 and was promoted to business manager and purchasing agent four years later. She was named president and chief executive officer in 1964. Sister has received many awards recognizing her contributions to the healthcare field, the community and its people especially through worldwide recognition of the Staff/r Program, an alternative to abortion, which she established in 1973. Sister Maryann is listed in the first edition of "Who's Who in Religion."

The Sunday afternoon reception will allow members of the community to say farewell to Sister Maryann, and to partake of the refreshments. St. Dismas Church is located at 2600 Sunset, Waukegan.

The Monsters Are Ready When You Are out at the Grass Lake Haunted House. If you haven't been called, but would like to help, give Shirley a call at (312) 395-7195 and she'll set you up with a date. Remember, no experience is necessary. You can be trained to be a monster. Afraid of the dark? There are tickets to be sold and it's the only light in the house. Remember to mark your calendar for opening weekend, Oct. 18 (which is date night 2 for the price of 1 dates only), Oct. 19 and Oct. 20. Then the doors reopen on Oct. 25 through Oct. 31. The doors always open at 7 p.m. and they will close at ??? The donation to enter is $2. There are two special kiddie matinees scheduled this year for children 10 and under with a special price of 50 cents. The matinees will be Oct. 20 and Oct. 27 from 2-4 p.m. All the monsters for the kiddie matinee are kiddie monsters which have been raised by the ghouls of the nighttime performances.

They are all getting ready to give you the thrill of your life. Watch for the special Haunted House truck in the Antioch Homecoming Parade. Rumor has it that the dancing witches are planing something really special this year. Will they make the cover of the Antioch News-Reporter this year?? What are they planning? You'll only find out at the parade, so be sure to attend on Oct. 19. Place-downtown Antioch. Time 10 a.m. See you there!

Unfortunately, the following was omitted from last week's article, but for those of you who get the paper on Wednesday, you might be interested in attending the 12th Congressional Women's Club fall meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 9 at the Warsaw Inn, 217 N. Rte. 31, McHenry (1 mile south of Rte. 120). The Buffet Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. and the cost is $8 per person. The guest speaker will be Senator Doris Karpel (25th District) who was instrumental in getting the "I Search" legislation introduced and passed in the Illinois Legislature. Her interest and concern in this legislation was instigated at the request of a victim's parents. You will find this program interesting and informative...and you will be shocked to find out how many children are missing each year in your own area. To make your reservation, please call Pat Cameron (312) 526-1616, Jean Schwab (815) 358-4826 or myself.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 1134 enjoyed their first campout of the year at Camp Morrison. Despite the weather, the girls learned how to cook their meal in foil on an open fire. They all shared duties, even finding lost pillows. The girls who attended were: Kathy Benes, Jenny Brausam, Amy Dogan, Beth Enright, Aimee Kitto, Alicia Lundgren, Amy Martin, Jenny Mosier, Jenny Rogan, Jessica Stella, Hope Turk and Angie Stricker. The girls earned their Troop up your old one (312) 395-8059. She is also looking for felt, wood pieces, large pieces of styrofoam packing material, and what ever else you might have to help the committee make crafts. Monica Day, Shahnaz Hansen and Pat Santlemmo will be helping Linda. Give them a call if you are interested in attending workshops or would like to donate craft time to the bazaar. There is a need for men and women who are handy in cutting wood and wood patterns. Christmas isn't that far away and the Christmas Bazaar is scheduled for Dec. 1. It's a great way to meet people and to have fun working on projects. It and Sue are mother and daughter. Sue really celebrated her birthday this year with a surprise party in her honor on Oct. 5. This has really been an exciting two weeks for Sue, as they just returned from a trip to Las Vegas and Los Angeles. Sue and Harry got tickets to see the Price is Right and would you believe, Harry got picked as a contestant. The filming was for the nighttime version of the Price is Right, and will be aired sometime in the spring of 1986. Unfortunately, Harry's prices weren't right, but he got the thrill of his life by being picked for the show. He was awarded consolation prizes, but they won't know until the show is aired as to what they might be. Sue was really lucky too! Her name was drawn for a door prize which turned out to be a color T.V. What a vacation! What a birthday!

Happy Anniversary to Carl and Bea Campbell who will be celebrating their special day on Oct. 14. Edna and Ray Fechtner celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary on Sept. 30. Don and Judy Fechtner celebrated their 19th anniversary on Oct. 1. Both couples had a joint celebration dinner at the Captain's Anchor on Sept. 28. Happy Anniversary to you all!

Oct. 11 will find the fifth-grade class swimming at Camp Ravenswood. Send their towels and suits. Oct. 11 is also an arts and craft show at Hawthorn Center. Might be a good place to get some ideas for the Christmas Bazaar. The kids will have another day off from school on Oct. 14 with Columbus Day. And start thinking haircuts, with class pictures coming up on Oct. 22.

Brownie Troop 1366 is planning an exciting day on Oct. 16 with a trip to the Pumpkin Farm. Be sure the girls are sent with proper attire for that day.

Congratulations to Pat Sherwood who finally got her nursing results - she is estastic!

Remember to call with your news!

Linda Boerman is this year's Christmas Bazaar chairman. She has been really busy getting ideas together and trying to plan workshops to make this annual event one of the best in the area. If you are thinking about getting an artificial tree this year, please give Linda a call and she'll pick always seems the more you talk, the faster the projects get done. Once again, you don't need a child in school to help out. Some of the prettiest items have been made by our local grandmas, aunts, uncles, etc. So give Linda a call and join in the fun!

Lots of birthdays this week in the Grass Lake area. Marc Fechtner will be celebrating his day on Oct. 13. Mark will be eight years old and is in Mrs. Larson's second grade class at Grass Lake School. Melissa Cole will be celebrating her day on Oct. 11. She will be nine years old and is in Ms. Olsen's fourth-grade class at Grass Lake School. Pat Metz will be celebrating her day on Oct. 12. Sandy Chinn will turn another year older on Oct. 16. Jamie Brausam will be celebrating her day on Oct. 16. She's in Mrs. Larson's second grade room at Grass Lake School. Anna Zorger will be a young "86" on Oct. 18. She's busy playing bingo several nights a week and it keeps her young. A belated birthday wish goes to Sandy Benes who celebrated her day on Oct. 4. Sandy is now seven years old and is in the second grade. Buick Raef celebrated her day on Oct. 7. Sue Lengvenis also celebrated her special day on Oct. 7. By the way, Buick

By using the guide, students are pointed in the direction of major aid programs. It also provides a list of publications which explain other aid programs, too numerous to describe in the guide.

Those interested in obtaining "Financial Aid To College Students, A Guide To Federal, State and Private Sources," contact Congressman Crane's District Office at 1450 S. New Wilke Rd. in Arlington Heights, or telephone (312) 394-0790.

More School Involvement

A great leader once lamented, "War is too important to be left to the generals." A modern paraphrase of this saying would be: "Education is too important to be left to the teachers."

This paraphrase might explain, at least in part, why there always is widespread interest in education. It also explains, in our opinion, why some of the teaching fraternity is so incensed when someone other than a teacher expresses a viewpoint on education.

Narrow-focused teachers like union leaders and classroom militants are among the biggest detractors of the cause they espouse. An example of the typically strident, acid-tongued classroom craftsman can be found in the letter column elsewhere on this page. Fortunately, we don't think the writer reflects the opinion of a majority of fellow teachers.

More and more citizens are speaking out on educational matters and referenda as the product continues to deteriorate and the system becomes more mired down with unionism and bureaucracy. We think there will be more, not less, taxpayer opinion expressed in every shade of the spectrum along with increased citizen participation in the educational process. This ultimately will be of benefit to all, although undoubtedly discomfort a few.

Parents Blind-Sided

Back to School Night for parents of students at Antioch High turned out to be as much a rally for school board incumbents running for reelection as it did for the parents to follow their child's schedule and meet teachers.

Besides visiting classrooms and getting acquainted with teachers, parents were given a piece of campaign literature with five candidates marked X. The five marked candidates are presently on the board that co-sponsored the parent gathering in cooperation with the Parents-Teachers Club. There was no disclaimer on the campaign sheet.

Three other citizens running in the Nov. 5 election for five seats on the board should be incensed at the political action. Parents in attendance have a right to feel insulted. In football jargon, the distribution of election literature at a strictly educational meeting would be called "getting blindsided." Another sports phrase also comes to mind: a cheap shot.

Coles For CLC Board

The College of Lake County is governed by an elected board of trustees who serve six-year terms. Typically, CLC trustees are elected and never heard from again, except perhaps at groundbreaking events, dedications or commencement. In itself, the facelessness of college board members isn't all bad, but it does lead to a sort of generic, homogenized type of leadership that is less than an important responsibility demands.

This could change in a hurry Nov. 5 if voters elect Ron Coles to one of the three CLC board seats up for election. By his nature and past record, Coles has demonstrated the kind of independence of thought and action that the CLC board sorely needs. We think the College of Lake County would benefit greatly from a trustee who is willing to speak out on his own and not as a spokesman of consensus. We heartily recommend Coles for the CLC board.

As a past chairman of the Lake County Board and service as supervisor of Lake Villa Township, Ron Coles has the kind of experience in public administration that would bring a new dimension to CLC board deliberations. As a private businessman, Coles would provide a voice missing in the conduct of CLC board deliberations since the school was founded. Coles, we are certain, has the fortitude to stand up to the special interests that confront the college at every turn.

Voters who agree with us that the CLC board needs a strong, independent voice would do well not only to support his candidacy, but also give him a single, "bullet" vote that would send a message that citizens are looking for leaders and not follow-the-leaders in the candidates they place on the college board.

Correction

An editorial last week on the Round Lake sanitary District incorrectly stated the amount of legal fees paid Atty. Rudy Magna Jr. as "about $50,000." The correct amount of fees paid Magna, beginning in 1982, is $24,751.58. The editorial also stated that Al Valentin, district manager, and Rudy Magna Sr., mayor of the Village of Round Lake, are partners in an underground contracting firm. The company is in a non-operating status and owns no equipment. Valentin and Magna are associated in the operation of a mobile home park.

It's Far Out! That's Things Around Here

by BILL SCHROEDER

Living in the far outreaches of suburbia has its advantages over an existence where it takes you an hour's train ride or more than an hour of bumper-to-bumper driving to see a corn stalk sway in the breeze or get a whiff of freshly mowed hay.

Letters To The Editor

Protect Health

Editor:

I am a non-smoker, but attending the College of Lake County full-time has caused me to inhale more smoke than anytime in my life! CLC needs more restrictive measures against smoking. Needless to say, smoking has been proven to be hazardous to the health of the smokers, but it is also hazardous to the health of non-smokers because of side-stream smoke. The areas of CLC that a non-smoker can escape the smoke are practically non-existent and because the ventilation system circulates the air throughout the main building, the smoke pursues you no matter where you go. The lack of fresh outside air coming into the main building, much of the time, seems to compound the problem.

It is estimated that one out of seven deaths this year will be directly attributable to tobacco smoke. There have been 40,000 scientific studies testifying to the hazards of tobacco smoke. Why can't CLC, an educational institution, take the lead in doing something to protect our health?

Ghost Town

Editor:

Three cheers for citizens like Ross Zanzucchi and Ted Schaefer, who recognize the terrible situations the village and school systems of Grayslake are facing. With a mayor who is against the school system of his own community, what hope is there?

Yes, Grayslake is dying, and one of the reasons is the mayor and other community leaders are not willing to back a referendum to help the collapsing elementary school system. No wonder families with children are moving out of Grayslake and quality teachers have sought jobs elsewhere.

Why doesn't the mayor of Grayslake follow the leads of other mayors, such as Mayor Welton of Gurnee and Mayor Sabonjian of Waukegan, and strongly support the upcoming elementary school district referendum. Certainly the mayor must realize that a community can be no stronger than the school system which is educating its young. Or is it true, as Mr. Schaefer implies, that the mayor would not mind seeing Grayslake turn into a ghost town?

I think about how lucky folks hereabout are every time I hear big city dwellers squabbling about the possibility of night baseball intruding on their serenity or the eminent danger of a convention center's roof collapsing because grafting politicians syphoned off building materials needed to make the place safe.

The only lights intruding on my privacy are when my neighbor goes to bed and forgets to turn off his yard light. We haven't had any roof cave-ins since a limb blew off the apple tree and crashed through the garage of the guy down the street.

Our version of street violence is when the sophomores get carried away during spirit week and pelt the principal's house with rotten tomatoes. The only muggings we have are when the toddlers get mad at each other over who's turn it is on the swing set.

We went to a Friday night football game in Arlington Heights a few weeks ago where the field announcer's voice constantly was drowned out by O'Hare jets in the landing pattern. Cursed jet noise! Occasionally, we'll have a "weekend warrior" from Campbell Airport buzz his wife or girl friend.

What does our town get fired up about? Certainly not proposed handgun ordinances or ethnic demonstrations. Potholes in the street are sure fire irritants. Murky water is another civic problem to stir the neighborhood. We demonstrate publicly at the homecoming game and the start of the new Little League season.

Local political types confine their knavery to bungling attempts to sneak through tax rate increases and leaf-burning controls. Grubby aldermen padding payrolls with lazy relatives are confined to the 10 o'clock news.

If you're getting the impression that this pace suits the local style, you've got it! Right on, far out suburbia!

Man The Lifeboats—Politicians On March!

by JOHN STEINKE

It may seem odd with autumn hardly here, that there should be serious talk about who is going to run for an office in November, 1986.

But Illinois' political time-spans are different. Both parties will nominate their candidates for the general election in the March primary. It is not too early for the alert and sensitive politician to begin sniffing the political breezes. Already the politicians are pressing the flesh, kissing babies, patting bottoms and whispering sweet nothings in our ears.

But we should never forget that politicians are driven by an insatiable desire for power and self-importance. They possess two principles. One is to get elected. The second is to get reelected. To help you maintain a proper perspective on candidates, I am going to share some political wisdom with you that I have gathered over the years:

1. "A dead politician is the noblest work of God." — Political Humor, 1910.

2. "A politician's idea of an unfair question is one he can't answer." — Raymond Moley.

3. "A political war is one where everyone shoots from the lip." — Raymond Moley.

4. "There are some politicians who, if their constituents were cannibals, would promise them missionaries for dinner." — H. L. Mencken.

Steinke On Politics

5. "Being in politics is like being a football coach. You have to be smart enough to understand the game and dumb enough to think it's important." — Eugene McCarthy.

6. "Very few people get a whole lot out of their government when you actually get down to it. You elect a person but you still have to continue to struggle, your taxes go on, you still have to pay your dues to the sheriff." — West Virginia Sec. of State James Manchin.

7. "The best minds are not in government. If any were, business would hire them away." — Ronald Reagan.

8. "The statesman shears the sheep; the politician skins them." — Austin O'Malley.

9. "Vote for the man who promises the least; he'll be the least disappointing." — Bernard M. Baruch.

10. "I think I'm a pretty good candidate, because first I lied about my intentions to run and I've been consistently vague on all the issues and I'm continuing to make promises that I'll be unable to fulfill." — Pat Paulsen, presidential candidate for the 1968 Straight Talking American Government (STAG) Party Ticket.

11. "The common thread is the druglike effect of power. Power transforms people. Some of the sweetest and most decent humans I've known once they've got the power in their hands, became b...ds, transformed in spirit and personality." — Theodore White.

12. "The most important thing is that you vote. Remember hundreds of thousands of Americans have fought and died so that we have this precious privilege. And if those hundreds of thousands of dead Americans knew how many bums run for public office, they would rise up from their graves and give us all heart failure." — Mike Royko.

When the politicians come a-courting you for your vote with their plastic smiles, sweaty handshakes, inflated promises, and the pretense of concern for you as a human being, please remember the quotations of Columnist John.

County ZBA Slates Hearings On UR3

by GLORIA DAVIS

In response to complaints about residential zoning in Lake County, the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals has scheduled four hearings in the county concerning the possible rezoning of certain areas of Grant, Lake Villa, Avon and Antioch Twp. from the present UR3 (Urban Residential-3) to UR3a.

The hearings are an outgrowth of the problems of the residents in the Buena Park Subdivision in Lake Villa Twp. who are objecting to zoning that allows multiple family dwellings to be built in areas residentially zoned if there is sewer access.

Lake Villa Twp. Assessor Mike Karasinski has been leading a drive for rezoning to protect people who thought they had bought in areas zoned only for one-family dwellings.

According to Karasinski, many other areas in Lake County suffer the same problem but the residents are unaware of it unless apartment building developers decided to move into their area.

The first hearing was held at 9:30 a.m. on Oct. 4, at the County Bldg. The second is slated for 1:30 p.m., on Monday, Oct. 21, at the Lake Villa Twp. Hall. The third will be held at 1:30 p.m., on Tuesday, Oct. 22, at the Antioch Twp. Hall and the fourth will be held at 1:30 p.m., on Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the Grant Twp. Hall.

McConnel Gets More Backing

Wadsworth Mayor Edward P. Tomkowiak has extended his support to Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnel in her bid for the Republican nomination for Lake County Clerk in the March 1986 primary.

In an exclusive statement to Lakeland Newspapers, Tomkowiak asserted, "Having served as mayor of Wadsworth for two years and as trustee for 16 years, I know the importance of a well-run government office."

"Venita McConnel's background in municipal government as well as in the business community makes her, by far, the best qualified person for Lake County Clerk. We residents of Lake County will be well served by Venita McConnel as their Lake County Clerk. Her support and knowledge of local government will benefit the entire county if they vote for Mrs. McConnel."

Tomkowiak joins a host of Lake County mayors, who are supporting McConnel's candidacy for county clerk. She has received the endorsements of Mundelein Mayor Colin McRae, Libertyville Mayor Paul Neal, Lake Zurich Mayor Henry J. Paulus, Wauconda Mayor Ken McGill, Island Lake Mayor Charles Amrich and Village President Walter Clarke of North Barrington.

McConnel is competing with Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna Mae Litwiler of Ingleside for the GOP nomination for Lake County Clerk. The Republican winner will oppose Democratic incumbent Linda Hess in the Nov. 1986 elections.

Subscription Rate To Be Increased

The subscription rate of this newspaper and associated Lakeland Newspapers is being raised to $11.50 effective Nov. 15.

Until then, new subscribers can order the paper and present readers can extend their subscriptions at the old rate of $9.50 per year and receive a free drawstring tote bag that is useful for all sorts of purposes.

Publisher William H. Schroeder said this is the first change in subscription rates since 1978.

The per copy price of 25 cents will remain the same.

The subscription rate increase will go to offset postage increases, a 150 percent increase in newsprint, increased labor costs and "all the other increased costs going into publishing a newspaper today," the publisher noted.

Year in and year out, the Lakeland group ranks with the outstanding community newspapers in Illinois and the midwest, regularly winning honors in state and national newspaper contests. In the 1985 Illinois Press Assn. Newspaper Contest, Lakeland won first place awards for best editorial page and best family/home page.

Commend Students

Carmel High School for Girls has been notified by National Merit Corporation (NMSC) that four Lakeland area students have been designated Commended Students in the 1986 Merit Program.

Those named are as follows: Sharlene T. Dacanay of Ingleside, Joy M. Kllora of Gurnee, Christine A. Manske of Gurnee and Jennifer A. Thomas of Mundelein.

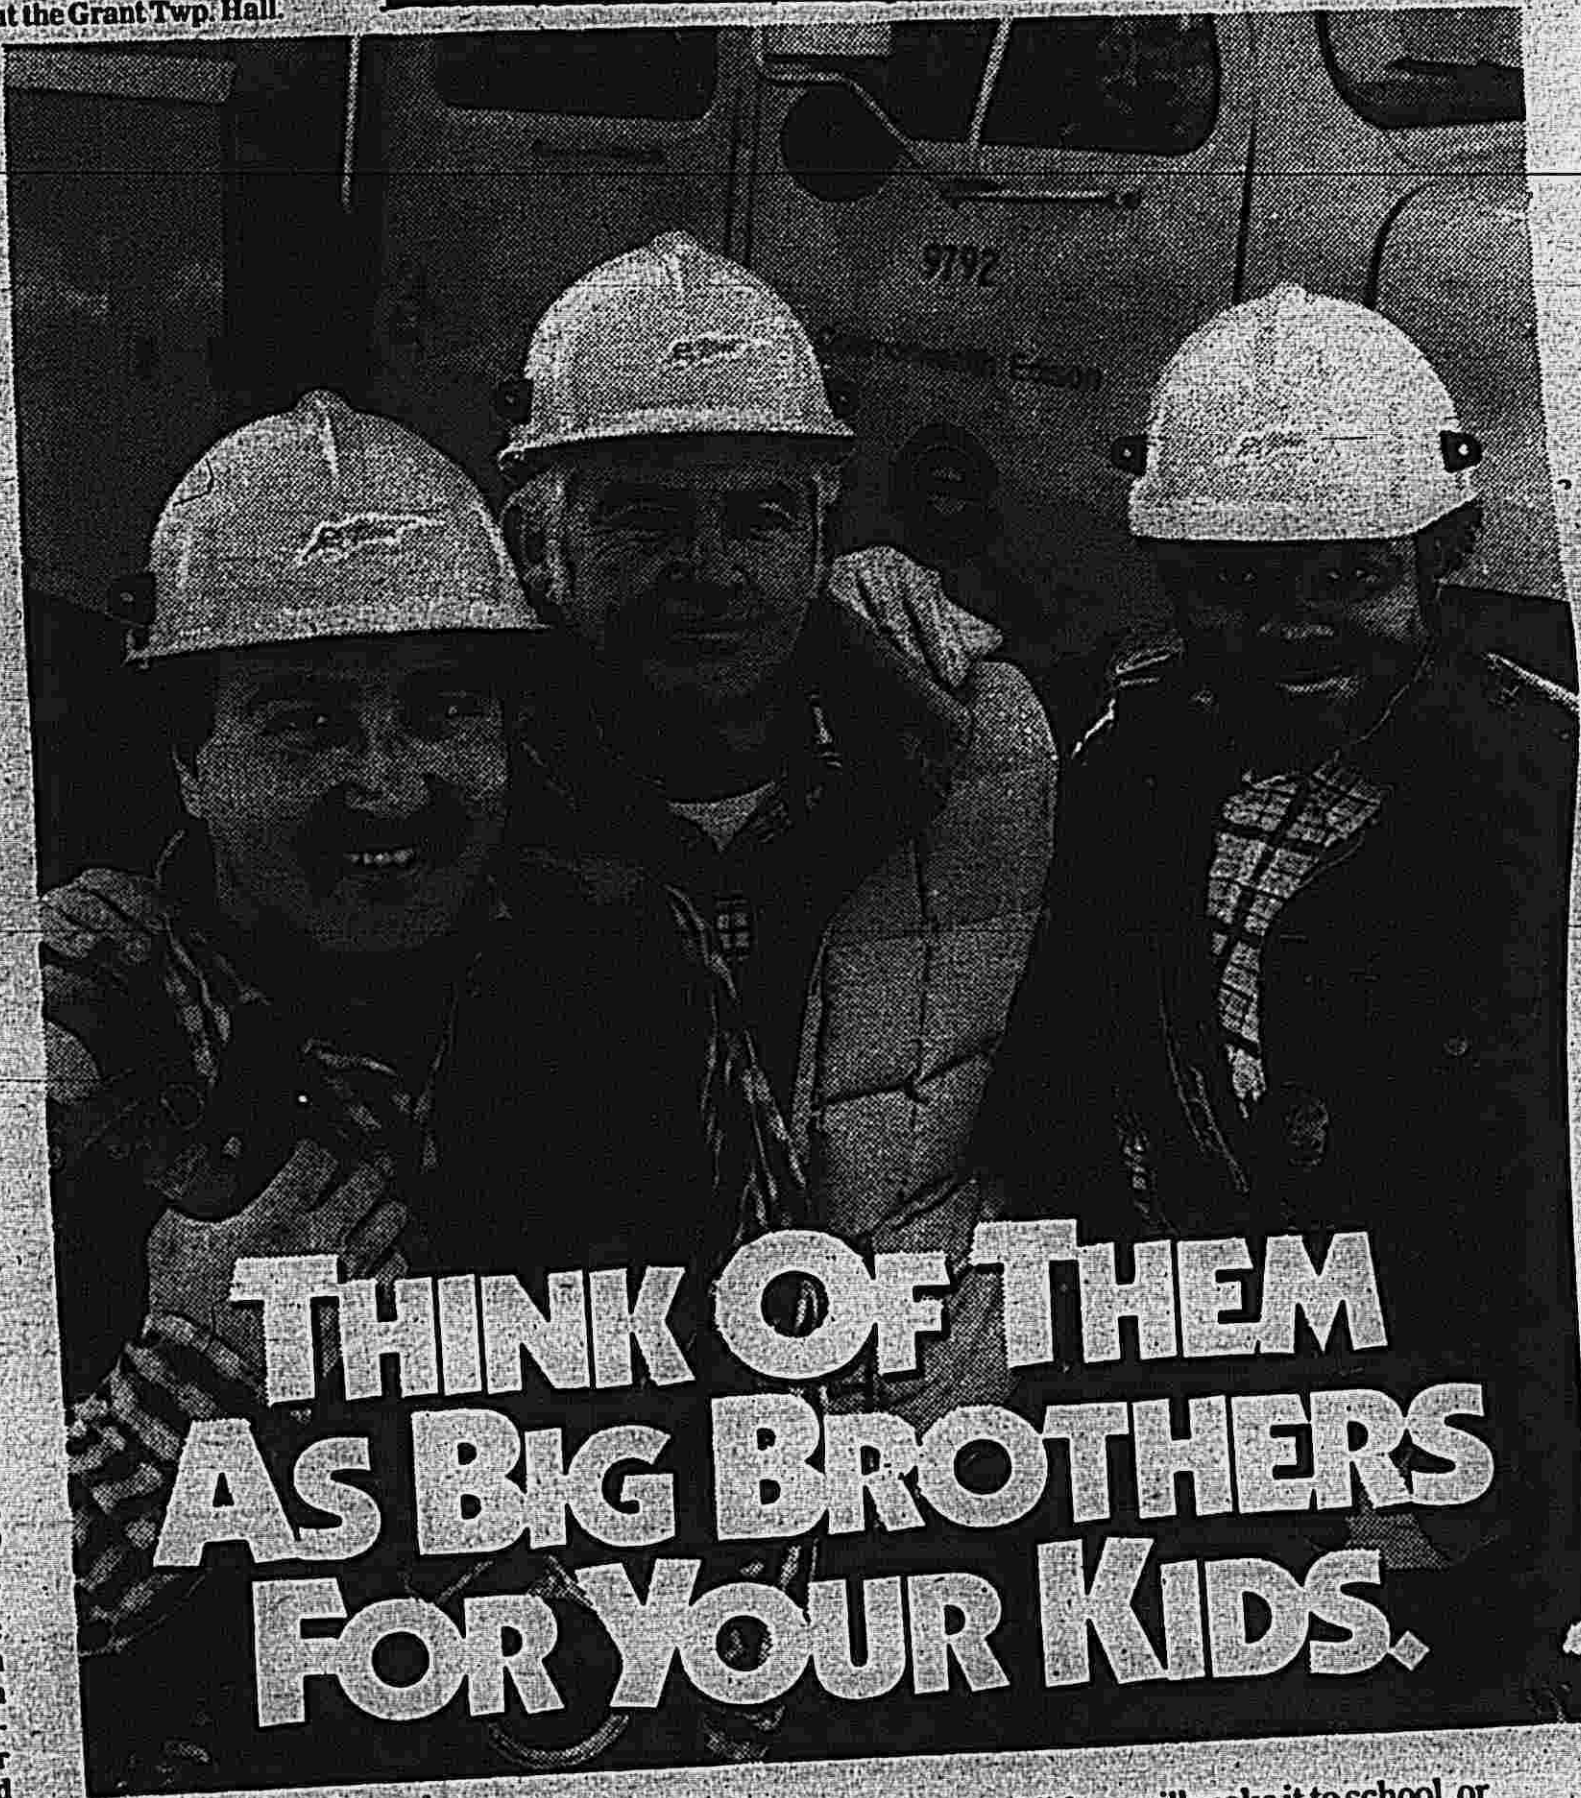

An officer of NMSC, which administers the program, stated that "Being named a Commended Student in the extremely competitive Merit Program is a credit to these young men and women and to their schools, which play an important role in the development of academically talented youth. The high test performance of Commended

Students is indicative of exceptional scholastic ability, which is essential in a nation that prides itself on cultivating individual excellence. We hope the honor these students have earned will provide motivation for them to use their talents to the fullest and also will serve as an example for other aspiring young citizens."

Residents Receive Award

Two Wauconda residents have received awards from Good Shepherd Hospital for their volunteer service.

These volunteers are Joan Pasciutti, 100 hours and Amy Lucius, 500 hours.

It's sad. We can't take it for granted anymore that our children will make it to school, or the store, or the movies, and back. We can't be sure it's safe for them to play in the park, or the schoolyard, or even the front yard, alone. Until we can again, until they're finally out of danger, we're turning every Edison employee into family. To give kids in trouble or lost someone to turn to, someone who cares, when there's no police officer close by. It's not a solution to the problem by any means, but it's a start. A team effort that all of us at Commonwealth Edison take very seriously. Especially the hundreds of crews we have working out on the streets. Your kids can spot our trucks a long way off. When they see that big E in our logo, or the E-team emblem, they'll know they're among friends. Please, tell em to look for us.

Leisure Village Home Knows What Time It Is

by GORDON CRANDALL

You never have to ask what time it is in Raphael (Ray) and Marcella Hogan's house in Leisure Village. You see, they have about 70 assorted clocks of all makes and age throughout the house.

Colonel Ray Hogan (retired U.S. Air Force) is an avid collector and restorer of antique clocks. He estimates that he has collected and restored about 250 clocks in his lifetime. Some were sold or traded to other collectors.

His oldest clock in the house dates back to the 17th century, a bracket clock made in England. His oldest American clock, with wooden gears, has an 1820 census stamp on it. Both are still working.

Our retiree is an active member of the National Assn. of Clock Collectors, Inc. He also has an extensive library on clocks. He keeps posted on the antique clock market by attending the Chicago chapter meetings as well as the big clock association annual conventions.

The most he ever paid for an antique clock was $1500. Yes, he said, there is still a big demand for antique clocks.

Ray began his hobby of collecting clocks at an early age when he inherited his parents' and grandparents' clocks dated 1903. He used to do furniture refinishing in Corning, Iowa, so it was a natural thing for him to refinish and repair old clocks.

Born July 8, 1915, in Corning, Ray graduated from the local high school in 1934. He graduated from the University of South Dakota in 1939 and received an LL.B. degree in Law, which was later converted to a Juris Doctor degree.

At age 60, he attended Milwaukee Technical College for a clockmaker's course to further his special hobby.

In early 1940 Ray began working for Montgomery Ward & Company in Chicago as a credit and collection supervisor. Here it was his destiny to meet Marcella Dominick, who worked in Ward's credit department also. Her job was to approve credit applicants while Ray cancelled the credit for "deadbeats" who did not pay their bills.

As the story goes, Ray wooed Marcella and won. So they were married in Denver, Colo. on Sept. 27, 1941. Ray had previously been transferred by Wards to Denver to set up a credit department in their mail order house.

Ray held this position until he was called to active Army duty in March, 1942, as a second lieutenant (he had received an ROTC commission in college).

In a few months he was sent to the Adjutant General's School. He served during World War II and until February of 1946, as an Adjutant General dealing with administrative and personnel matters. He was stationed overseas in places like New Guinea, Philippine Islands and Japan.

After the war, Ray kept his reserve status in the Army and in 1946 opened a law office in his hometown of Corning. Then in November of that year he was elected District Attorney of Adams County, Iowa.

In 1948, he applied for return to active duty in the Army. He served as Adjutant General at Fort Knox, Ky. until December of 1949, when he accepted an Air Force commission. He served continuously as an Air Force Judge Advocate at various U.S. and overseas locations until his retirement in 1971. He was promoted to his present rank of colonel in 1963.

His work as a Judge Advocate officer included court-martial duties as trial counsel, defense counsel, and military judge, plus other duties of a military lawyer with claims, contracts, and legal assistance for Air Force personnel involved in civil suits.

Then came some rather prestigious appointments for Colonel Hogan. He served four years in Washington, D.C. as an appellate judge in the Air Force Court of Military Review and three years as the senior Air Force Judge Advocate in England.

While in England, he was advisor to the Country Representative for Her Majesty's Government for all U.S. forces and had under his direct or indirect supervision 40 attorneys, 37 non-commissioned officers, and 20 civilian employees in 12 separate legal offices.

During Hogan's last four years of Air Force duty, he was the Staff Judge Advocate of Chanute Technical Training Center, Rantoul, Illinois and had a staff of 14 attorneys, 10 non-commissioned officers, and eight civilians.

Asked what he liked and disliked most about this military service, Ray replied, "I like the Air Force part best, for I could do my job at law. England was my best assignment. I was able to secure a lot of antique clocks there. What I disliked most was the constant moving and separation from my family."

After his retirement from the Air Force in 1971, he was an instructor of Business and Commercial Law at the University of Wisconsin branch in Whitewater until 1976.

Since his retirement, the Hogans have spent eight winters down in Mexico at Lake Chapala, near Guadalajara. There are approximately 10,000 Americans living in that area.

It was during one of those winters, in 1980, that Ray began feeling chest pains. He was taken to the Army General Hospital in San Antonio, Texas, where he underwent heart bypass surgery.

The Hogans raised two daughters. The oldest, Priscilla, is the director of a Montessori pre-school in Lake Bluff, Ill. Muriel, who has a journalism degree, writes instructions for computer software for McGraw Hill Publications in Milwaukee.

In the spring of 1976, Ray decided to finally retire and move to Leisure Village. He moved from Wisconsin because (1) of the high state income tax, and (2) his daughters were living in Lake Bluff.

Now the Hogans are very happy to be living in the Village. They are pleased mostly about the condominium setup, the recreational facilities, and the 24-hour security.

And this continual security enables Ray and Marcella to spend the winters at a trailer park in Mesa, Arizona. There they watch the Cubs spring training games, play lots of bridge, do some bicycling.

This energetic couple have also travelled worldwide—all of the Western European countries, plus East Berlin, Budapest and Yugoslavia in the Eastern bloc, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Japan.

Hand In Hand To Meet

The next meeting of the Hand in Hand Support Group for caregivers of the elderly will be held at 7 p.m. Oct. 14, at the Fox Lake Library. A short film on aging will be shown followed by a discussion. Anyone concerned with an elderly person is welcome. If you have questions or need transportation, call Joanne (312) 249-3500, extension 17.

'Fiesta' Of Gems

The Lake County Gem and Mineral Society's 20th annual gem show will feature a "Fiesta" of gems - minerals, fossils, jewelry, crafts, exhibits, demonstrations, selected dealers and more. October... 1985

Dear Friend:

The year was 1978. The month October. Pope John Paul I was about to be buried and in Lake County, Great America was completing its second successful year, Woodrow Hayek retired from the Globe Department Store after 49 years and 2¢ milk was advertised at $1.01 a gallon; and at the Lakeland Newspapers rising costs had prompted us to raise our subscription rates.

There have been many changes in the seven years since our last price increase, including a 150% increase in the price of the paper this is printed upon, postage increases, wage increases and increased costs for light, heat and water (to say nothing of taxes). Now for the first time in nearly seven years, we are compelled to raise our subscription and newsstand rates.

We know that increased prices are universally unpopular and upsetting to budgets. To ease this transition, during the month of October you may enter a new subscription or renew and add to your subscription at current rates... saving $2.00 off the rates which become effective November 15, 1985.

We appreciate your patronage and confidence in the Lakeland Newspapers and promise to do our very best in bringing you current news about your neighbors in Lake County, in your schools, in your town, all along with the special features you enjoy every week.

Should you decide to beat the price increase, I welcome you to use the coupon located in this advertisement. But, please, renew or subscribe today because November 15, 1985, the new prices will take effect.

On behalf of our Lakeland Newspapers employees, I thank you for the pleasure and responsibility of providing you with Lake County's best news coverage.

Sincerely,
Bill Schroeder, Publisher

The use of HCG in a weight reduction program was originally researched and developed by Dr. A.T.W. Simeons of Rome, Italy over 30 years ago. Since Dr. Simeons' early work, HCG has been prescribed in Europe for weight reduction in both men and women. The program has been successfully used in the U.S. for the last 15 years.

Indications: HCG is not approved by FDA as safe and effective for weight control. There is no substantial evidence that it increases weight loss beyond that resulting from caloric restriction, that it causes a more attractive "pear-shaped" distribution of fat, or that it decreases the hunger and discomfort associated with caloric restricted diets.

Antioch, Warren Gear For Big Rivalry Game

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Sequoits will be trying to fan the spark ignited by their defense in last week's win against Zion, when they meet the Warren Blue Devils and try to combat the Warren Homecoming spirit in what Antioch Coach Steve Wapon expects to be "the rivalry game of the year."

"When the Sequoits play the Blue Devils you can throw out all the record books," said Wapon who is expecting a tough bruising game at Warren on Oct. 12.

Warren is now 3-3 and Antioch stands 4-2 in the North Suburban Conference after defeating the Zion Zee Bees, 17-7, using a strong defense as the winning key.

The only time in the entire game that the Zee Bees crossed the 50 yard line was when they made their one and only touchdown with an 88 yard run.

The first of Antioch's three scores came when Brian Pankauskas put a 32-yard field goal through the posts with 7:51 left in the first quarter.

It was an eight-yard pass from Sequoit quarterback Mike DoBosh to Don Gunther in the second quarter that accounted for the second, and Pat Bruks took the ball into pay dirt in the fourth with a one-yard run.

Pankauskas was again on target with the extra point kick.

Don Gunther had a good day punting except for the one he dropped on the one-yard line late in the game.

DoBosh was 10 for 22 for 129 yards, including one touchdown.

Key receptions were made by Chris Haley, 1-11 yards; Rob Visee, 3-58 yards and Gunther who ended the game 2 for 22 yards. Pankauskas was 3-32 yards and Bruks had 1 for 6 yards.

Rushing leader Bruks took the ball down field 23 times for a gain of 59 yards; Rick Turco did it five times to gain 17 yards and Gunther average 4-40.8 percent receiving.

"We moved the ball well and held tremendous field position with a great defense," added Wapon.

Credit goes to defensive linemen, Dale Gade, James Smith and Bob Cord. Linebackers Matt Humphreys, Tom Homan and Bob Johnson were other keys to Antioch's win.

Bulldogs, Skyhawks Out To Improve 3-1 Records

The Grant Bulldogs (1-3) invade Marian Central Friday night after capturing their first conference win of the season, a 20-7 homecoming victory over the Johnsburg Skyhawks. The Skyhawks (1-3) will be trying to rebound at home Saturday against Lake Zurich (3-1).

In Saturday's Grant homecoming game, Kevin Frystak's 22-yard touchdown run put the Bulldogs on top 6-0 (kick failed) in the first quarter. The Skyhawks came back on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Frank Husak to Brian Hauck. An 8-yard touchdown run by Frystak (kick failed) gave Grant a 12-7 halftime lead.

Jim Wanhala's 8-yard touchdown run and Phil Winfrey's 2-point conversion in the third quarter ended the scoring of the game with Grant on top 20-7.

Schedule Giving Carmel New Hope For 2nd Victory

A kindly schedule maker is giving Carmel High's football team a golden opportunity to turn a lemon season into lemonade.

Starting with a big homecoming game at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 11, the Corsairs will face three consecutive perennial second division teams in the East Suburban Catholic Conference.

The home finale will be against Holy Cross, Oct. 18. Carmel travels to Notre Dame of Niles. The season winds up for the Corsairs, who now are 1-5 for the season, with a road game against St. Joseph.

Three consecutive wins should give Coach Jim Rejc a career high of four season victories and possibly silence Corsair fans who are becoming increasingly restless about Carmel's lack of success on the gridiron.

Rejc's varsity eleven has averaged three wins per season since he took over as head coach four years ago. Joliet Catholic's league-leading Hilltoppers were everything—and more—in handing Carmel its third ESCC loss without victory, chalking up an easy 49-7 victory.

Only Rod Whitier's 90 yard touchdown run in the first half averted a second straight shutout.

Carmel's sophomores lost their second game after four straight wins 6-0 in the last 10 seconds on a defensive mixup in the secondary when Joliet counted on a desperation pass.

Mustangs Hope To Outrun North Chicago To Victory

While students at Mundelein High School are going all out this week to decorate halls and stir up school spirit in preparation for homecoming this week, the team who will be the focus of everyone's attention on Saturday, Oct. 12 are busy concentrating on strategies to beat North Chicago's top running back Mike Wright.

"He's one of the best running backs in the state," said coach Gary Heifner. "There's nobody on our team who can outrun him."

The Mustangs will take every chance they can get to take away Wright's best plays, he said.

"When we've done that, then we'll have to take on their fullback," he said.

While North Chicago may have some tough players to beat, the team overall has had a rough season with a score of 0-6.

"They've been in every game, but have just had a lot of heartbreaks," Heifner said. The Mustangs will do their best to upset plays by their opponents key players.

In their game against Libertyville on Oct. 5, the Mustangs suffered a loss of 13-8. Although individual team members made a number of good plays, the Mustangs just didn't match Libertyville's overall strength.

During the first quarter, the Mustangs scored an eight-yard punt and a 57-yard punt return. Jeff Geary ran for a touchdown, and a pass from Jim Frank to John Carr got the team two extra points, bringing the score up to 13-8.

Despite a number of injuries the team tried their best to hold off the Wildcats. At one point during the second quarter, the Mustangs lost their linebacker Bob Peters and split end receiver John McNulty.

"By the end of the game, we were missing our key players," Heifner said.

Mike Joerger tried to bring up the score in the last quarter with a 60-yard run that was almost a touchdown, before Wildcats made a desperation tackle. In the final minutes of the game, Mustangs fumbled three different opportunities to score a touchdown.

"We had in in our hands at three different times and could have had a touchdown, but just kept losing the ball," Heifner said.

Red Hot Panthers Hope To Stay Atop The NWSC

by MIKE PRAMSHAFER

When you're hot, you're hot. That's what sports fans have been saying about the Round Lake High School Varsity Football team lately.

The Panthers have won four games in a row and it looks like there's no stopping them now.

Three more victories in the Northwest Suburban Conference and Round Lake will clinch its first-ever berth in the IHSA playoffs.

Remaining opponents on the Panthers' schedule include at Wauconda, Marengo at home and at Lake Zurich.

The key for the Panthers is to not get too anxious. They must play one game at a time. That's what Head Coach Mike Dunn has been telling them all season long.

Wauconda is coming off a disappointing 14-3 loss at the hands of the Marengo Indians Oct. 4.

The Bulldogs are currently 2-2 in the Northwest Suburban Conference, tied for fourth place with Marengo.

The top of the conference sees Round Lake all by itself with an impressive 4-0 mark. Right behind the Panthers are Lake Zurich and Marian, who both have 3-1 records in the conference.

Speaking of Marian Central, Round Lake sent the Hurricanes home crying

Oct. 4 by handing them their first conference defeat in over two years.

The Hurricanes had won 17 Northwest Suburban Conference games in a row going into last Saturday's game in Panther territory.

The Panther defense was awesome as usual, holding Marian to only seven points. As a matter of fact, The Panthers have only given up 15 points in the last four games.

They defeated Grant 3-0, Grayslake 14-8, Johnsbury 24-0 and now Marian Central 14-7.

Round Lake took a 6-0 nothing halftime lead on two field goals by Dave Kaempf, but Marian came back and took the lead 7-6 with 10:35 left in the game.

The Panthers then showed their determination by driving 72 yards in 15 plays for the victory.

Jimmy DeLeon scored the winning touchdown with 2:24 remaining in the game on a six-yard run. Troy Haines completed the scoring by running in for the two-point conversion to make the final score 14-7.

Bulldogs Suffer Defeat

by JENNI PARMALEE

Amid Friday night's driving wind and rain, the Wauconda Bulldogs suffered a frustrating 14-3 defeat at the Marengo Indians Homecoming.

Bulldog senior Paul Nibbio summed it up after the game. "It's going to be a long ride home."

The Bulldogs' main problem was a lack of consistency by the offense. "We dropped some key passes and we didn't throw well at times," Wauconda coach Fred Loffredo said. "We weren't on the ball at the right time."

Like his reaction to the Bulldogs' loss to Jacobs in the 99-degree heat Sept. 7, Loffredo was not looking for excuses. "The weather was not a factor because (Marengo) had the same weather as we did," Loffredo said.

The Indians had several factors that contributed to their victory. In addition to a supportive crowd, the Indians had a twelfth man of Homecoming-playing momentum.

Marengo struck early during their first possession of the game. Junior quarterback Kevin Shelton drove into the endzone from the two-yard line. Before the Bulldogs had even warmed up, Marengo led 6-0.

Then on what proved to be one of the shining points for Wauconda, Bulldog tackle Skip Stewart blocked Dean Brandt's extra point kick.

It appeared that the momentum had turned around. But by the third play of the second quarter, Shelton fired to junior David Bowen for a touchdown. Running back Kurt Beyer made it 14-0 with his two-point conversion run.

After the Bulldogs returned from the lockerroom at halftime, their hopes for a comeback similar to that in last week's victory over Grayslake were renewed.

Only minutes into the third quarter, Wauconda recovered a fumble at Marengo's 13-yard line. Following an unsuccessful drive, Wauconda settled for a 25-yard field goal by Norm Niemo to close the scoring at 14-3.

Loffredo reflected the Bulldogs' frustration. "We had two good chances to score and we didn't get the job done," he said.

Despite the loss, the Bulldogs still displayed strong points. Loffredo commended the punt returners and recognized another good performance by the Wauconda defense who shut-out the Indians for nearly three quarters.

The Bulldogs at 3-3 meet the division-leading Round Lake Panthers for Wauconda's Homecoming on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Next week is Homecoming. I think that will bring them up," Loffredo said.

It did for the Marengo Indians.

Warren Faces Antioch In Homecoming Game

by DON DE GRAZIA

The Warren Blue Devil varsity football team will look for a victory when they face the red hot Antioch Sequoils during the homecoming game. The sophomore team will be at 12 p.m. and varsity at 2 p.m.

Antioch is currently in third place with a 4-2 record in the North Suburban Conference while Warren has a 3-3.

Warren is coming off a two game losing streak and will be faced with the task of defeating an Antioch team which has won its last four games. The latest being a decisive victory over Zion-Benton.

"The Antioch game will be a very exciting game," said Head Coach Reggie Hughes. Hughes feels that facing Antioch in the homecoming game will stir up the excitement in the students.

"I think it will be a very typical Antioch versus Warren game, it will be well played, well coached and very emotional," Hughes said.

Hughes feels that in order for Warren to beat Antioch, or any team, they will first have to get rid of the many physical and mental mistakes which have plagued the team.

"We will have to eliminate these mistakes or else we will become a below average team. At this point, with a 3-3 record, I would have to say we're an average team," Hughes said.

"I think our kids have responded very well this year but at times they have responded very poorly. A coach always likes to think that his team will always respond well but sometimes it's not always possible," Hughes said.

TIME OUT!

A Look At Sports Around Lake County

By Joel Willberger

Did you ever stop to wonder how come we can officiate games so much better from the stands than it can be done on the field? We can see the face masks, the cups, the holding (even in the center of the line), the roughing the kicker (or not depending on which team we're rooting for), etc. And we are constantly amazed when the officials down on the field occasionally miss those infractions.

Being an official on any level at any sport has to be one of the most thankless jobs there is. But I'm glad they're out there, after all someone has to be responsible for my favorite team losing. I'm sure it isn't the players or the coaches (sometimes). It's got to be those guys!

A look at the East Suburban Catholic Conference Football Standings makes you wonder about Carmel-10-4 in conference, 1-5 overall. Weren't they supposed to be contenders in the pre-season picks?

Talk about pre-season picks, what's going on in the Northwest Suburban Conference? The Grant Bulldogs (one of the favorites) managed its first win this week while Head Coach Mike Dunn's Round Lake Panthers, not even mentioned by any coach to be a contender, are all alone on top. What a difference a year makes; last year at this time you would have to turn the standings upside down for that to happen to Round Lake.

Just think what would happen at Grayslake if Head Coach Tom Wittum had the numbers. His Rams have been in every game this year only to fall short.

Libertyville with a two game lead in the North Suburban Conference looks like it will be tough to stop on its roll to the top spot.

How can any school overlook Richmond-Burton's Head Football Coach Randy Hoffman (6-0 this year) with a career winning percentage of better than 80 percent? Hoffman is interested in new challenges. Who wants a winner?

I would like to dedicate part of this column to the Lake County athletes of the past. If you can contribute information, call Sports Line (312) 223-8161.

Face Marengo In Homecoming

by DEBBIE HORVE

The Grayslake Community High School Rams will be playing its homecoming game against Marengo on Saturday, Oct. 12. The sophomore team will begin at 11 a.m. and the varsity game will begin at 1 p.m.

"We have to score some points to have a chance in this game," Varsity Coach Tom Wittum said. "Our defense has really come along we need to get our offense going."

Marengo is currently tied for fourth place in the Northwest Suburban Conference with a 2-2 record.

A loss against Lake Zurich has sunk the Rams to last place in the conference with a 0-4 record. Grayslake lost to the Bears, 7-0 on Oct. 5.

"We couldn't get the ball in the endzone," Wittum said. "Whenever we had a good drive, we made a mistake. Lake Zurich also played a good defense," Wittum added.

At halftime the score was at 0-0. "We punted and they just took the ball down the field and scored the winning touchdown, we couldn't stop them," Wittum said.

"The whole defense played a great game. Jim Eldridge, Eric Leafblad and Tom Castino all played well," Wittum stated. "Russ Rockenbach and Jason Samuelson are two players who are coming along well."

Castino led the team with five tackles and five assists. Jon Lui had six catches for 44 yards and Castino had four catches for 60 yards.

That approval is awaiting an OK from the Lake County Board.

one municipality), if required.

Financing, risk allocation, agency membership and provisions for recycling will also be on the plan's agenda.

At the same meeting, representatives for Waste Management, Inc. reported that the landfill company is planning to submit an application for a landfill site, east of Rte. 83, immediately north of the Commonwealth Edison Power Line, south of the ARF Landfill (which still has an eight to 10-year life expectancy) and north of Peterson Rd., outside of Grayslake.

The next meeting of the advisory board is set for 7:30 p.m., on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the Warren Twp. Center.

Announce Meetings

Throughout October, utility ratepayers will have a chance to speak out as the Citizens Utility Board (CUB) comes to their towns and neighborhoods across Illinois.

As the centerpiece of "CUB Month," the 125,000-member watchdog group is holding a series of 27 "Town Hall Meetings" to report on the accomplishments of CUB's first year, outline the battles ahead and listen to the questions, complaints and concerns of CUB members and other consumers.

"Our organization's strength lies in its numbers," said CUB President Howard Learner. "It's the size of our membership that gives us a fighting chance against the utilities and their army of high-priced lobbyists."

Mike Boland, CUB vice-president said, "Town hall meetings are a great American tradition. We urge all consumers to participate."

In the past year, CUB has garnered over 125,000 members and continues to grow. CUB has fought in the General Assembly for utility reform and won. CUB also won battles before the Illinois Commerce Commission, including a recent victory in the Illinois Power case which will save consumers an average of $150 through 1988.

"Our first year was a successful one," said Learner.

Helping Paws Is A Friend For Animals

ARLENE WHITNEY

Helping Paws sent me a couple of stories from their files. One of them went like this: A phone rang in the Helping Paws office. Could we accept a collect call from London? We did — a dog was found, wearing a Helping Paws tag. Our pet owner file was checked and we could give the finder the name of the owner so that they could check it in their area. We called the Crystal Lake number listed under that tag number, and it had been disconnected. Afternoon, a Crystal Lake resident called to say her relatives in Houston lost a dog and it was wearing a Helping Paws tag. Could we help? We certainly did! Helping Paws was able to supply her with the name, address and phone number in Houston. Small world, isn't it?

The second story went like this:

On Sept. 16, a white Persian cat was reported missing from Victor Parkway. It was advertised in the Helping Paws column, but no one called her in as found.

On January 2, a white Persian was reported found on Crystal Lake Ave., not far from Victor Parkway. Helping Paws checked this out and fortunately it was the same cat. After almost four months, the cat was reunited.

Helping Paws can be found in Crystal Lake at 45 Virginia St. (Rte. 14) just one short block north of the water tower. They are open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and until 3 p.m. on Saturdays. They have many pets to choose from plus a variety of animal gifts and novelties available for sale.

They might sound far away to some of you, but I also know that many people go into Crystal Lake to shop or if they are looking for just the right pet, people will travel miles to the Helping Paws a try.

Helping Paws is an Animal Welfare Assn. that was founded in 1969 and chartered by the State of Illinois in 1971. They are licensed by the State of Illinois Dept. of Agriculture to operate according to the laws of a humane society.

Their funding is totally by donation. Whenever possible, they find foster homes to care for stray and injured domestic animals until they can adopt them out. Their goal is to have and operate a pet half-way house environment until the pets are adopted. It is much like the foster homes, but they can accommodate more pets in one location. In the meantime they are always looking for good foster homes for these pets.

They work harmoniously with the McHenry County Animal Control Center in Woodstock. They offer a refund on the spaying and neutering of animals adopted from them.

They work harmoniously with the McHenry County Animal Control Center in Woodstock. They offer a refund on the spaying and neutering of animals adopted from them.

This is how I got help with Tomasina and her kittens. Being I was a foster home, they were able to take care of the spaying of Tomasina. Each owner of these kittens got a very low spaying and neutering fee. There are several vets that work with them on this.

Pet-Wise

Helping Paws has a weekly column in five county papers in which they offer foster homes and home-owned pets for adoption. There is a free listing service for lost and found pets. They provide educational programs to the schools by classroom presentations. Helping Paws is the first agency in the state of Illinois to provide a follow-up visitation program on all Helping Paws dogs and cats.

Helping Paws have fund raising events throughout the year covering everything from bazaars to tag days. They welcome your skills and talents to help in any way. They are very enjoyable, hard working people who really care about these animals in need of their help. You can be part of it.

If Helping Paws is just too far for you, there are shelters in your area that do much the same thing and also need your help to keep things going. It is truly unbelievable how many animals are astray or hurt. They all need help from people who care. They need your support. Help save a pet today!

The Shoreline Baseball League of Lake County, met to finalize its 1985 season and to set forth its plans for its 39th consecutive year of operation in 1986.

John Kowalski, of the Champion Palatine Redskins, repeated as the league's top pitcher. He won seven and lost none, with a 2.95 E.R.A.

The Most Valuable Player Award went to first baseman Jim Kating. Kating batted .450 and hit 14 home runs.

while driving in 44 runs to lead his team to its second straight league title.

Turning towards the 1986 season, the league team members elected Dennis Backis, manager of the Waukegan Golden Eagles, as league president.

Backis, thus replaces the veteran manager of the North Chicago Cardinals, Joe Pudlo, who had served in that capacity for the past seven years. Stan Sprigiel will act as the league secretary in 1986.

The Palatine Redskins, Richmond Transportation Travelers, Waukegan Golden Eagle and the Highland Park Merchants stated definite intentions of fielding a team in 1986.

The Zion Dill Brothers, whose manager for the past seven years, Terry Scherman, announced his retirement at the meeting, were listed as questionable.

This was also the status of the Gurnee Indians.

The North Chicago P.L.A.V. Cardinals were extremely doubtful as to returning in 1986.

New teams expressing an interest in the league were the Prairie View Royals, who play at the Stevenson High School, and a team from Addison, which plays its home games at a lighted diamond in that city.

Further information for any other teams interested in joining the Shoreline Baseball League may be obtained from the league president, Dennis Backis, by calling him at (312) 336-8828, after 4 p.m. on any weekday. The deadline for new entries is March 15, 1986.

Players interested in playing for any of the current teams should also call that number for information as to the team in their area.

WAUCONDA TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1985

OFFICIAL ASSESSMENT LIST:

This publication is the official notice to property owners of the 1985 changes in assessed value of land and improvements in the Township of Wauconda. The 1985 assessments as published herein are those determined by the Assessor and/or the Supervisor of Assessments.

It is the duty of the Assessor to assess all taxable property on a uniform basis of valuation so that the assessed values of the various properties are a just and equal assessment of such properties according to law.

The assessment roll recording the values of property determines only the distribution of the total tax load among the individual property owners. The assessor of the Township and/or the Supervisor of Assessments has no control over the amount of taxes levied, nor the public expenditures. The amount of these assessed values does not determine the amount of your tax bill. The established tax rate does that. The Assessor does not make the rate; he merely finds the value of your property.

EQUALIZATION

The following printed assessments, as well as all other assessments in the Township, are shown at 33.33 % of market value, having been equalized to that level by the Supervisor of Assessments, who has applied a factor of 1.0070 to all values except those assessed under the provisions of Secs. 20e, 20g-1, and 44.1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended.

To determine the market value of your property, add the total of the land and total of the buildings and divide the result by 0.3333. If it appears that the resulting number is higher than the market value of the property you may be over-assessed. If the resulting number is less than your opinion of market value, the assessment may be low.

ARRANGEMENT OF LIST

If you live in an incorporated area (city or village), your property is listed under the name of your city or village which will be in alphabetical order. Each street within the city or village is also arranged in alphabetical order. Property owners living on the same street will be listed as follows:

First-vacant property or improved property with no street number.

Second-property with street number listed in numerical order (may be approximate).

If you live in an unincorporated area, your property is listed alphabetically by post office and street name. Then, property without street numbers will be listed first followed by numbered properties in numerical order.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Any property owner who has any question in regard to the assessment of his property should call the local Township Assessor's office. This publication does not reflect reductions for Homestead Exemptions or disabled Veterans Exemption. Note that land value and improvement value appear separately, and should be added together to arrive at a total assessed value. Certain of the values published will have been reduced by a Homestead Improvement Exemption, which under present law the reduction in assessed value could be as much as $10,000 below the actual assessment. These values are subject to a State adjustment factor certified to the County Clerk by the Department of Revenue. Any property owner who objects to the amount of his assessment should file a complaint in writing with the Board of Review from June 1, to September 10, 1985, or until thirty (30) days after publication, whichever is later. Complaint forms may be obtained by telephoning (312)689-6609 or by written request to the Supervisor of Assessments, County Building, Waukegan, Illinois 60085-4339.

Questions regarding the grid system used in determining address numbers should be directed to the Lake County Map Department, whose telephone number is (312)689-6373.

Mundelein Looks Into Ordinance To Ban Porn

The Mundelein Village Board will explore three different alternatives for a proposed ordinance that could either ban or limit the distribution of pornographic material within the city limits, said Village Atty. Charles Marino.

Among the options are banning the sale and distribution of "hard core" pornographic material, which, Marino said, primarily includes films sold in adult bookstores. This approach would not pertain to "soft porn" materials such as magazines generally found on newsstands, he said.

"This ordinance has a limited application in a place like Mundelein," Marino said.

One alternative he said the village might consider would be to ban the sale and distribution of pornographic materials to minors. Such an ordinance would not prohibit adults from purchasing soft porn magazines, but could require that merchants place magazines behind a blinder to cover the lower portion of the materials.

A third option would come under the form of a zoning ordinance, which could prevent adult-type stores from locating in a particular area by requiring a certain amount of space be allowed between other stores, Marino said.

Although requiring blinders to cover pornographic materials might be the most significant for Mundelein, Marino said he is looking into a recent Circuit Court ruling in Virginia that found such an ordinance unconstitutional because pornographic materials had to be placed in a separate part of the bookstore.

"It's something you can't control carte blanche, but reasonable measures can be taken," he said.

Marino said he will prepare a draft of the ordinance in the three different ordinances which will be submitted to the village board.

She's DUI—Spouse Socks Cop

It took a Lake Villa policeman and a Lindenhurst officer to handle a Gurnee couple after a wife, who failed the sobriety test, tried to drive her husband, allegedly also intoxicated, home on Sept. 29.

Phyllis Bouma was arrested by Lindenhurst Officer John Nebl at approximately 1:30 a.m. on Sept. 29 while driving on Grand Ave.

While she was being charged with DUI, her husband, Richard created a scene at the Lindenhurst

Police Station, punching Lake Villa Officer James Curtis, who was giving the sobriety test in the face.

The husband was charged with battery to a police officer and will appear in court on Oct. 14.

A New Fox Lake Is Ready When You Are

by KAREN WILTBERGER

Fox Lake resident Margaret Tuck is one of countless Chicagoans who changed Fox Lake summertime to a year-round community.

Tuck, who bought her Fox Lake home in 1945 and has since become very active in the community, says the Chain O' Lakes capital is a "changed area" and "a totally different ballgame."

In 1946, Tuck used to catch a bus to Chicago in front of her home. That service has vanished, but the Milwaukee Road still runs, providing 30 trains daily to the Chicago Loop, with an average travel time of an hour and 15 minutes. The RTA operates buses to nearby communities linking Fox Lake with Lake County, McHenry County and many Chicago metropolitan communities. U.S. Route 12, which passes through Fox Lake, is also major thoroughfare for motorists traveling to the Chicago or southwestern Wisconsin region.

Community Profile

Industry has also changed since the arrival of Tuck, a 10-year member of the Fox Lake Chamber of Commerce. In 1953, Fox Lake was the home of more than 130 resorts that rented boats—today it is the home of only 11 of those resorts, Tuck said.

However, Fox Lake's yearlong industry is moving full speed ahead, particularly under the administration of Mayor William Dam, who took office in May.

"Bill Dam is bringing more industry to this community," said Tuck. "People say he's moving too fast, but maybe that's the right direction."

The recent flow of industry moving to Fox Lake include a fashion dress shop, a duraclean fabric specialist, a bakery, two mini-storages and a Taco Bell expected to open in November.

"Everybody in town is pitching in, I'm kind of like a coach in the background," Dam said. "All I can say is that the neighboring communities better hold on to their saddles because we're not waiting around."

Though some people now consider Fox Lake a year-round community, Tuck believes it is still primarily a resort area.

With a population of 7,000, Fox Lake is built around 10 lakes with water area of nearly 6,500 acres and nearly 500 miles of shoreline. The four lakes within the community are Fox Lake, (the largest of the Chain), Nippersink Lake, Pistakee Lake and Duck Lake. The Fox River also runs through the community.

In the winter, residents and visitors can enjoy ice fishing, snowmobiling, skiing, tobogganing and ice boating. During summer months, activities in the Fox Lake region include swimming, water skiing, parasailing, fishing, canoeing and boating.

Holiday Park in Ingleside is known as a ski lodge in winter months and a recreation park with a water slide during the summer. The Chain O' Lakes State Park provides more than 5,000 acres of conservation area, camping, picnicking and recreation facilities.

As far as homes go, despite what some may believe, the once-prominent Fox Lake cottages are no more, said Rusty Canty, real estate agent for Red Carpet C. Frank, 19 S.

'Grand Hotel'

One of the most famous hostleries in Lake County was the Mineola Hotel, in Fox Lake, which today is a national landmark. The hotel, currently being refurbished, is on its way to becoming alive. Hwy 12, Fox Lake.

In 1950, people could come to Fox Lake and buy cottages for $10,000, but today the majority of those cottages are completely renovated and are selling for about $75,000, she said.

"There are very few summer cottages left in Fox Lake anymore," said Canty. "Some people think they can still buy a summer cottage on the lake for $30,000, but most of those homes have already been converted in to year-round homes."

"If you can still find one (a cottage) on the waterfront, you can buy one for $35,000 to $40,000," Canty said.

Canty said Fox Lake today has a wide variety of homes, ranging from small, affordable homes to expensive lakefront homes. Home buyers can find affordable, remodeled (new foundation, plumbing, electricity, sometimes a basement) homes, which sell for about $40,000 to $60,000, Canty said. Homes on the waterfront sell, on the average at $125,000, she said.

Fox Lake also has five subdivisions, including Leisure Village (for residents 52 and older) and Vacation Village (which seems to attract weekend visitors and younger residents).

Canty, who moved west to Fox Lake eight years ago from a nearby town, said she sees a lot of people moving to the western part of Lake County, especially those from other areas in the county and the northwestern suburbs.

But just why do people want to move to Fox Lake?

Canty replied: People want access to the water. They want private, quiet yards. They want to send their children to good schools—They want to have some space to live.

Allendale Appoints Stith

In its efforts to provide expanded professional services to the community it serves, Robert Holway, executive director of the Allendale Assn., has appointed Mr. Edward Stith, ACSW as associate director for Outpatient Services of the Edward L. Bradley Clinic.

In this position, Mr. Stith will be responsible to coordinate all outpatient services, including psychology and social work interns of the Bradley Clinic.

Stith has been an employee of Allendale since 1978, when he joined the clinical staff as a therapist providing individual and family therapy for Allendale residents and their families.

Other duties included licensing and supervision of foster homes, in-service training for working with resident's families, and conducting and coordinating the school's child management seminars for parents.

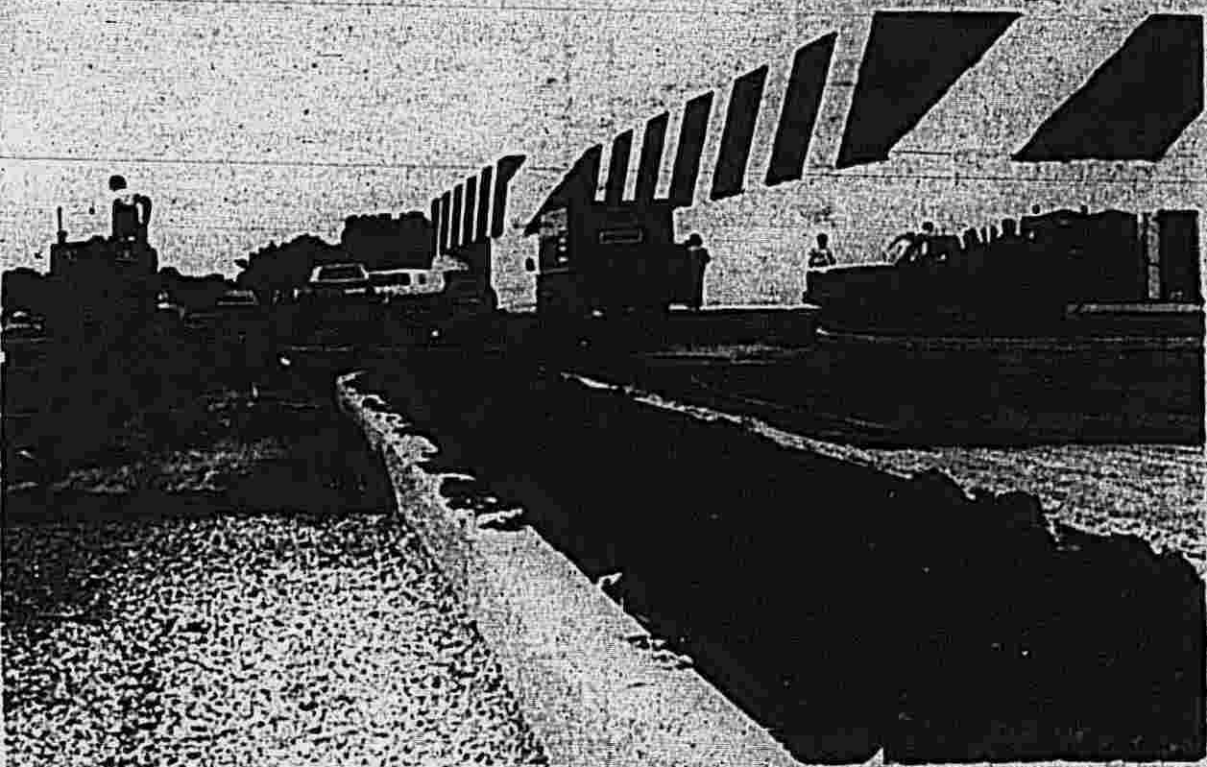

In 1981, he was named Clinical Coordinator for a newly developed program for severely disturbed and mentally ill children.

His responsibilities included providing in-service training to staff, supervising the implementation of the treatment program, supervising staff, organizing, and co-leading a parent's support group.

In his new position at the Bradley Clinic, Stith will be responsible for coordinating the four therapists dealing with outpatients, psychology interns preparing for their doctorate and spending one year at the Bradley Clinic, and all social work students assigned for the field work to Allendale.

Stith received his B.A. at St. Josephs College in Rensselaer, Indiana and his M.S.W. at Loyola University in Chicago. He lives in Mundelein with his wife, Paulette and four children.

Groundwork Nearing Completion

Construction workers complete the parking lot that surrounds the new Venture store on Rte. 60. The store is expected to open later this fall.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Constancy and persistence pay off for the usually impatient Aries Lamb. A seemingly impossible situation starts to show favorable signs. Stick with it for a while longer.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) The bad news is promises end up as compromises, and backers back out of commitments. But the good news is disappointments make way for bigger and better opportunities.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Someone new seems to have all the answers. But did you have a chance to ask all the important questions? A disarmingly charming person can be alarmingly disarming.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 22) A quieter time replaces a more hectic period. Take advantage of the lull to renew ties with kin and kin. Someone special will appreciate your undivided company.

Leo (Jul. 23-Aug. 22) Spend more time with your youngsters and watch how the Lion's cubs glow in all that splendid Leonine affection. Everyone benefits as loving ties grow stronger.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Details may wag the dogged Virgoan more than even he or she prefers. Expect to have to deal with some minor irritations before you make a major breakthrough.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Stay flexible. Changes dominate. Meanwhile, some answers start coming through, although many are still elusive. Patience pays off. Take things one step at a time.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) It's a good time for Scorpions to start new projects and lay out new courses. Aspects favor positive approaches. Go on the offensive; the defense will take care of itself.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Some facts are like medicine; they're hard to swallow. But they may be the only remedy for unpleasant situations. Pay attention to what you learn during this period.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Family needs dominate this period. Spend more time with kin. Also expect to receive a strange message from someone you thought would never contact you again.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Amuse your Muses as your creative aspects get stronger. Artistic fulfillment comes from doing what you like to do in the way you like doing it. Enjoy!

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Your recent show of loyalty to an old friend causes a lot of ripples. Expect to hear from others who will react to your kindness in ways that will please you.

and salary required.

Here's The Story...

RICHARD W. SEARS was employed as a station agent in Redwood Falls Mn. in the early 1880's. He was 19 at the time. By coincidence, he began selling watches and found the business profitable. He expanded his operation, moving first to Minneapolis and then in 1887 to Chicago.

Needing a watch repairman, Sears placed the above classified ad in the Chicago Daily News. The ad was answered by ALVAH C. ROEBUCK, and he got the job! This was the first meeting of the 2 men whose names were to be joined in the largest mail

Changing Styles

Grass Lake Companies, which was formerly Grass Lake Lumber Co., on Grass Lake Rd. west of Rte. 59, has changed from a one man's business to the businesses of several local merchants. Owner Robert Diemer during the past year has remodeled the brown barn to fit the needs of his renters. —photo by Karen Willberger.

Offer Opportunity For Small Local Businesses

For 22 years Antioch resident Charles Forster sold lumber from his brown two-story barn on Grass Lake Rd.

Today Forster is retired and another Antioch resident is making a go at what used to be one man's business.

Robert Diemer, owner of two small local businesses, has sectioned off what used to be a lumber company into a home base for his businesses as well as other companies.

The old brown barn has come a long way since Diemer purchased it a year ago. Today it goes under the name of Grass Lake Companies. The freshly painted sign that advertises the plaza features a colorful duck, which incidentally was chosen over a racoon for reasons only a hunter, such as Diemer, would understand.

Last summer Diemer moved his plumbing and roofing companies to the building. Not long afterwards, three other business owners joined him.

Antioch residents Chuck Miller and Chuck Bell, painters of the company duck sign, have opened a sign painting business in a small building in back of the barn, called Chucks' Signs.

Larry Williams, of Antioch, started up Grass Lake Fiberglass and Laura Cummings moved her Chicago southside business, Greg Fence Erectors, to a small white garage next to the barn.

"I have no complaints," said Cummings, who decided to move her 10-year business after visiting friends in the area. She said the price and the location were right.

The business family is further expanding with Antioch resident Brian Dyer moving in a silk screening business and Antioch resident Margaret Uterhart is trying out her luck in the homemade doll business.

"We're trying to appeal to the small businesses," said Diemer. "A lot of people want about 1,500 to 2,000 square feet to start out their businesses. We're able to divide the buildings to satisfy their needs."

Diemer, targeting to add three to four more businesses by winter, is in the process of buying two acres behind the complex for parking. The location is one in midst of several towns and far away enough from central business districts to exclude it from congestion, Diemer said.

Many of the companies that have moved in the complex are small, Diemer said. Though retail businesses are welcome, Diemer said the majority of businesses there are service-oriented.

Diemer has also made room for 12 storage garages, of which six are occupied.

"It was a good investment. I don't regret it at all," Diemer said, adding that he is glad Forster was "nice enough to make affordable arrangements."

Couple Attends Seminar

Oscar and Alice Calanca, of Casey Rd. Pet Motel and Travel Agency in Grayslake, have just returned from a four day American Boarding Kennel Assn. convention.

The convention was held in Vail, Colorado, with four days of seminars in cat handling, maintaining the longterm boarder and concepts in canine nutrition. The couple also attended a meeting conducted by the Independent Pet Shippers Assn. The topics included the humane handling and shipping of pets, within the country and overseas.

Sal's Sign Stop Gets Personal

by DEVON NELSON

At the northern end of the Vogue Printers parking lot at 2421 Greenbay Rd. are three street signs that say Greenbay Rd., Vogue Parkway and Go Packers Go.

There seems to be nothing unusual about the Greenbay Rd. nor the Vogue Parkway signs, but Go Packers Go?

This kind of personalized street sign, in which a person can say anything that suits their fancy, is the creation of Sally Herson, owner of Sal's Sign Stop.

Although she shares a joint partnership with her husband, Don, in the printing business, Sally says that the specialty sign business is strictly her baby.

Herson said she got the idea for her business while attending car swapmeets with Don, who is also an antique car buff.

She said that she would always get tired of walking around the meets, so she had to think of something that would allow her to share in her husband's hobby but yet keep herself occupied.

This all happened in March and since then Herson says her business, which started out making only car signs, has mushroomed to include witty sayings and names.

"The first year has been unbelievably fantastic in comparison to 20 years ago when we first started our printing business," said Herson.

She said that her signs, which run 6 x 20 to 36 inches long and in colors of red, black, blue, green and white, can be placed anywhere.

For personalized signs, Herson said the signs cost $18, while instock signs are priced at $10.

Herson said that although she does not have anyone directly on the payroll, she does have six salesmen working with the company to help relieve some of the pressure from her demanding schedule.

Each weekend Herson says that she and her husband attend swapmeets in Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana. Next month Herson said the couple will travel to Pennsylvania, where they'll be attending the Cadillac of swapmeets.

Getting Personal

Sally Herson believes personalized street signs will soon become a full-time project for her. She said her sign business has already mushroomed considerably since March. —Photo by Devon Nelson.
